Good morning to Goodnight- Eleni Kaur

Her Mindset

I think many men forget that a woman's mindset will bring up their children. It's their mentality that will teach them how to raise their children with the courtesy of being polite, respectful.

Yes, beauty is a bonus. But, external beauty fades.

It's the mindset that'll not only benefit them by inspiring them, keeping them on the right path and lending them an arm when they need a hand but will raise the mini-them.

That's what they forget.

Her mindset

Mindset before beauty.

External beauty will fade
Internal beauty will forever remain.

Choose sensibly.
